

Dear fellow Believers,

While the Berean Lamp Ministry does not currently accept donations, the greatest help you can give us right now is to spread the word about this ministry to friends, family, and people you know.

There are many ways you can share the Berean Lamp Ministry with others: you can copy a link of the Berean Lamp website into emails you send to people, you can send our newsletter as an attachment in emails to people, you can print copies of it and leave them wherever you feel it may speak to people and you can share it by word of mouth.

Thank You for your support!
